The Matrix
of Ham &
Canaan

Album 39 Stories

Song 1: The Matrix of Ham-Canaan After the Flood, Noah's son Ham dishonored his father. Because of this, Noah cursed Canaan (Ham's son). Canaan's descendants became many tribes who lived in the land later given to Israel. Some turned to idol worship and evil practices. Yet God showed mercy — even from this line, Jesus Christ would bring redemption and healing to all nations.

Song 2: The Matrix of Antediluvian-Cainite Before the Great Flood, Cain killed Abel and was sent away from God's presence. His descendants (Cainites) built cities, invented tools, music, and weapons, but lived in increasing violence and pride (especially Lamech). Their line shows how sin grows when people turn away from God. Only Noah's family was saved through the Flood.

Song 3: The Matrix of Prophet Daniel Daniel, taken captive to Babylon, received powerful visions from God. He saw a huge statue with a head of gold, chest of silver, belly of bronze, legs of iron, and feet of iron mixed with clay. These represented powerful kingdoms that would rise and fall. In the end, God's eternal Kingdom (the Rock) destroys all human empires.

Song 4: Michael Rises In the last days, there will be a time of great trouble. The angel Michael will rise to protect God's people. Many who sleep in death will awaken — some to everlasting life, others to judgment. Those who are wise will shine like stars forever.

Song 5: Bronze Empire Rising Alexander the Great from Greece built a massive empire very quickly. After his death, his generals divided it into four Hellenistic kingdoms. This was the “bronze” empire seen in Daniel's vision — powerful and widespread, but temporary. Human glory fades, but God's Kingdom remains.

Song 6: The Matrix of the Prophet By the Tigris River, Daniel received a terrifying vision of a mighty angel. He was told about future wars between the kings of the North and South, and a time of great suffering. Yet God is sovereign. The vision ends with hope — the righteous will be delivered and shine like the stars.

Song 7: Legs of Iron, Heart of Grace The Roman Empire was strong like iron legs in Daniel's prophecy. It ruled powerfully for centuries. But even this mighty empire eventually collapsed. Through all the rise and fall of empires, Jesus Christ offers grace and rules with an eternal throne.
